2. The following are the headquarters for six nursing schools which are under construction:

Saxony	Aue
	Leipzig
Prandenburg	Frankfurt/Oder
Thuringia	Jena
Saxony-Anhalt	Halle
Mecklenburg	Greifswald

There are rumors to the effect that these schools are to be used to train military medical corps personnel.

3. The DDR Ministry of the Interior has cancelled all contracts for ambulances (Sanitätskraftfahrzeuge) placed by offices (hospitals, etc.) under the Ministry of Health with vehicle factories in Zwickau (DKW in Zittau and formerly Phänomen). The purpose for the cancellations is allegedly to relieve the DDR vehicle industry of non-military orders.
4. Construction work on the Templin training camp continues full force. Up to 70 percent of the personnel of Bau-Union Potsdam and Bau-Union Brandenburg, including apprentices, has been transferred to the Templin project. The Templin project also has priority over all other construction in respect to raw materials, such as bricks and cement. Work on several large projects, such as the housing project in Fürstenberg/Oder, the large hospital in Hennigsdorf, the Land ambulatories (Landambulatorien) in Brandenburg, the Institute for Nutrition Science (Institut für Ernährungswissenschaft), and the Office for Research on Vitamins (Anstalt für Vitaminforschung), has been curtailed because of lack of workers and raw material.

5. The DDR State Planning Commission has rejected all requests for the delivery of telephone cables with more than 50 wires (Ader) since about the middle of July 1952. The cause of the block on deliveries is the increased military demand and the decreasing capacity of East German cable manufacturing plants. At present allocation of deliveries is handled by the State Administration for Material Procurement (Staatliche Verwaltung für Material Versorgung), headed by State Secretary Erwin Kerber; formerly the State Secretariat for Construction (Staatssekretariat für Bauwirtschaft), headed by State Secretary Wilhelm Mayer, was responsible for apportioning materials.
6. At a conference of the State Planning Commission which took place at the end of July 1952 it was announced that the Ministerial Council (Ministerrat) intends to allot to the Simson-Werke, Suhl, arms manufacturers, investments amounting to 260,000,000.00 DM.
